

Bast Pumpkin

A most deadly and horrifying pumpkin monsters. They were once a regular pumpkin, but it transformed by a black lightning bolt that struck it while it was covered by mist on a darkest Halloween night 50 years ago. Now it hunts to devour its prey. It can be ward away by lighting a candle and saying this chant, "The candle is its guide, now it will light tomorrow a new path! Farewell Flame!" Then blow out the flame onto the candle. If someone defeats a pumpkin, the Bast pumpkin can be used as ingredients to make the most delicious pumpkin pie or bread. They only appear in dark forest and pumpkin gardens.
